Masaharu Takenaga is CEO and responsible for leading the company's business operations, strategy and for ensuring IHP continues to exceed client expectations.

He started his career in management roles at a leading Japanese trading company where he gained valuable experience and polished his skills through engagements with various industries. In 1991, Takenaga-san established his own management consulting firm. Over the past 20 years, Takenaga-san has served as an outsourced Administrative Director (COO) and Chief Advisor to several Japanese hospitals. Takenaga-san has assisted Japanese hospital CEOs (physician owners) in restructuring their organizations, strategic planning and operational programs leading to sustainable growth in each of his tenures.

Takenaga-san graduated with honors from Chuo University (Tokyo) with a B.A. in Law.
